VARIOUS MATTERS
The family reunions will begin today.
Dealers in table delicacies have had a good holiday trade.
Little pigs for Thanksgiving roasts were featured on Tuesday.
Eat your Thanksgiving dinner at the Del-Hoff; fifty cents—adv.
On lawns and in parks the grass is still green, and many shrubs retain their leaves.
In spite of the mild season furs are bringing a big price and trappers are unusually alert.
On Thanksgiving morning the parish mass in St. Patrick's church will be at 8 o'clock.
Holiday travel began last evening and the suitcase brigade will increase in numbers today.
All barber shops will be closed all day Thanksgiving; open night before until 11 o'clock—adv.
Owners of woodlots were pleased to see Tuesday's showers, as lessening danger from forest fires.
Students from the college and preparatory schools will return this afternoon and evening for the holiday recess.
Eat your Thanksgiving dinner at the Del-Hoff; fifty cents—adv.
Comfort circle of The King's Daughters met Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. H. W. Branche, on Laurel Hill, nine members being present.
There is no probability that the old-time Thanksgiving day trips to the homestead in the big family sleigh will be duplicated this season.
Fishermen are doleful over the reports that some of the best trout brooks have dried up this fall, which will mean fewer fish next season.
A Connecticut school document recently issued by the state board of education embodies excerpts from Secretary C. D. Hine's annual report and is entitled School Improvement.
From Block Island, which used to supply the trade with no less than 20 tons of turkeys annually, not more than 500 pounds have been produced for many years. This falling-off is said to be due to a turkey disease called blackhead.
Eat your Thanksgiving dinner at the Del-Hoff; fifty cents—adv.
Western Connecticut hunters are complaining about the scarcity of quail and partridge. While some partidge are being bagged there are no quail being shot. Flocks which were observed early in the summer have disappeared. It is thought by some that the birds have migrated south.
The schooner George H. Ames, Capt. L. A. Gray, arrived Monday from Savannah with a cargo of yellow pine for Fort Point. The vessel left Savannah November 2, and had head winds all the way up the coast. Last Wednesday she came in by Block Island and since then has been beating her way into port.
Connecticut members of the D. A. R. are receiving souvenirs from Chicago, where the Daughters of the American Revolution gave a luncheon last Thursday in the gold room of the Congress hotel in honor of Mrs. Matthew T. Scott, president general of the national organization. It was followed by a reception to Mrs. Scott.
Washington-Sunset route to California—Tourist sleeping car four times weekly without charge. Personally conducted. Berth, $8.50. 170-228 Washington street, Boston—adv.
Master Matthew Byrne, injured four weeks ago at an Academy football game when a radiator fell on his leg, was able to leave the Backus hospital on Tuesday, for his home on Washington street. His wound has healed and the fracture is improving. Although kept in bed by the orders of his physician, Dr. Cassidy, his condition is considered very favorable.

MEN'S LEAGUE SOCIAL
AT CENTRAL BAPTIST.
Oyster Chowder Followed by a Delightful Entertainment and Lecture.
A delightful social evening was enjoyed by the Men's League of the Central Baptist church, which held a meeting Tuesday evening in Bushnell chapel which began with a supper served at 6.30 o'clock. Covers were laid for forty men and a delicious oyster chowder and salad supper was served by a committee under the direction of Mrs. Joseph M. Burdick. The waitresses were Mrs. C. L. Swan, Miss Fannie Sydnor, Miss Ella Burgess and Miss Ethel Morgan.
After supper President Allyn L. Brown called the meeting to order for the disposal of some minor matters of business, and then the entertainment programme was given, which had been arranged by John H. Barnes, chairman, James A. Hixson and Frank T. Manley. This included a well rendered soprano solo, A May Morning, by Miss Marion Parkinson, and a violin solo, Berceuse (Godard), well played by A. E. Cherry. Both were called upon for encores, and with the accompanist, Miss Caroline H. Thompson, received a vote of thanks. This was followed by an illustrated lecture upon local birds given by Principal F. J. Werking of the Tataville school, which made a particularly appreciated part of the evening. He and Louis Hoss, who operated the lantern, were given a vote of thanks.
IN THE CITY COURT.
Young Men Had Their Case Continued Again—Boys Are Fined for Throwing Stones.
The continued cases Against Leo Hill and Gerald Babson, charged with attempting to lure away two young girls, was again continued in the city court on Tuesday morning until next Monday. The bond of $2,100 in each case was retained, although their counsel asked to have it lowered.
Several Greenville boys were presented, charged with throwing stones at a man who was chasing them when they took his barrel. He was struck in the head. Three boys were discharged, but three were fined.

Frank A. Comstock Improves.
Frank A. Comstock of New London, who fell and struck his head on a stone Sunday morning, was slightly improved Tuesday. Mr. Comstock is gradually recovering the use of his right side, which was paralyzed.

PERSONAL
Garfield Hercux has returned to Norwich, after a short stay in Wilmington, Del.
Mr. and Mrs. Chester Clough leave today for Tolland to spend Thanksgiving at Mr. Clough's home.
Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Houlcroft, Jr., of Springfield, are spending the Thanksgiving holiday with relatives here.
Mrs. Margaret Tarbox has returned to her home in Providence after visiting Mrs. R. H. Snow of Chestnut street.
Miss Frances R. Whitney of the faculty at the Catherine Aiken school, Stamford, will return to her home here today for the Thanksgiving recess and remain until Sunday.
THANKSGIVING CONTRIBUTIONS
AS LARGE AS USUAL.
City Missionary Northrop and Helpers Had a Busy Afternoon Getting the Goods Assorted.
To see the appreciation of the poor for the gift of the necessities for a Thanksgiving dinner, and to see the need of such contributions, it will only be necessary to drop around to No. 16 Water street today, when the 150 representatives or more of families call in response to invitations from the City Mission of the United Workers to get their share of the good cheer.
On Tuesday, City Missionary Northrop had a corps of efficient workers assisting him in putting up packages of tea, coffee, sugar and assorting the contributions from the schools. This morning will come the meat, and all will be placed in baskets, eighty or more of which will be sent out to families. Invitations have been sent to 150 or more families who will be expected to send representatives after their portions today, so that in all probability over 200 families will be supplied.
The city missionary had four expressmen gathering up the contributions from the schools on Tuesday, and all but those in Tataville and Greenville have been secured and they will be received today. There have been large contributions this year, the average having been maintained, and the work can be carried out in every particular as planned. The usual amount of money has been contributed and one automobile owner has contributed the use of the machine and driver for the sending out of some of the baskets.
Although Tuesday was a busy day, it will be equally busy this morning. Rev. Mr. Northrop had the assistance of Mrs. E. E. Dow, chairman of the City Mission committee; Mrs. E. J. Olcott, Mrs. James Johnson, Mrs. Emily Wadley, Mrs. George Keopler, Mrs. J. A. Morgan and Mrs. William Johnson. While Joshua Yeomans and Charles J. King were also valuable assistants.

FUNERAL.
John H. Maynard.
Funeral services for John H. Maynard were held Tuesday afternoon at 2.30 at his late home, 352 Main street, New London, attended by many mourners and delegations from organizations with which Mr. Maynard was connected. Identified these being the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, Independent Order of Red Men and Henry Gardner lodge, Manchester Unity, of Waterford, Rev. Joseph A. Elder officiated. The bearers were members of the various organizations. Burial was in Jordan cemetery, where the committal service was according to the ritual of Henry Gardner lodge.
Mrs. Harriet W. Brown.
The remains of Mrs. Harriet Weaver Brown, who died in Stonington Sunday morning after a week's illness from heart trouble, were brought to Norwich Tuesday for interment in Yantic cemetery. Prayer was held at the house of her sister, Mrs. Thomas Capron, by Rev. George Burton Marston, pastor of the First Baptist church, of which the deceased had been a member since 1855. Funeral services were conducted at the grave in the afternoon by Rev. Mr. Marston. There survive two sisters, Mrs. Capron and Mrs. Beckwith of Windham; one son and three step-daughters.
The remains came by special car on the Westerly road, the funeral party being taken to Yantic cemetery, where the services were conducted in a tent. A number of local relatives were present. Church & Allen had charge of the arrangements.
Cigarettes from Mexico.
Raymond B. Eldred had a curiosity to show his friends on Monday the value of some genuine Mexican cigarettes which he had received from a friend in San Antonio, Texas. The cigarettes have a corn husk wrapper filled with Mexican tobacco, and are much longer and thinner than the American made article.
Dance at State Hospital.
In place of the usual dance for the employees of the state hospital, given Thanksgiving night, there was a dance there on Tuesday night from 8 to 10 o'clock, on the top floor of the administration building, Galligan's orchestra furnishing music. There was a delightful time.
St. Patrick's Alumni.
A meeting of the St. Patrick's school alumni was called for Tuesday evening in the chapel, but no business was transacted, as the rain made the attendance so small. It is expected another meeting may be called about the middle of December.

DELICIOUS SODA DRINKS
Ice Cold or Piping Hot
HOT CHOCOLATE, as it is served at SMITH'S PRESCRIPTION STORE, is a rare treat. It is so rich and smooth, it is so exceedingly delicious and it is served so hot and fresh that to taste it once will keep you coming again and again as long as our Hot Soda Urn is in commission.
COLD SODA—our cold soda fountain will of course remain open all through the winter to serve you with the same luscious Ice Cream Sodas, College Ices and the other fountain delicacies which you have enjoyed so much this summer. Also brick or bulk Ice Cream supplied on orders.

FAREWELL RECEPTION AT Y. M. C. A.
Given Former General Secretary and Mrs. Frank H. Merrill—Presented Purse of Gold and Several Other Gifts.
A well-attended reception, pervaded by a delightful social spirit, was given Tuesday evening in the Y. M. C. A. parlors by the board of managers and auxiliary to the former general secretary, Frank H. Merrill, and his wife, who are soon to leave here to reside in New York, where Mr. Merrill is to be secretary of the church house of the West End Presbyterian church. During the reception hours from 8 to 10 o'clock, the Harmony club rendered a fine musical programme. The attractive decorations of palms and ferns were artistically arranged by Mrs. Henry H. Pettis of the auxiliary.
Receiving with Mr. and Mrs. Merrill were Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Brown, the former being president of the association, and Mrs. Will L. Stearns, vice president of the women's auxiliary. Mrs. Costello Lippitt, president of the auxiliary, and Mayor Lippitt were both prevented by illness from attending.
On behalf of the donors, President Brown presented several gifts to Mr. and Mrs. Merrill, happily expressing appreciation of the value of their services while connected with the association for the last eight years, the regret felt at parting, and the best wishes for success in the field of usefulness opening in New York. Mr. Merrill responded felicitously in accepting these marks of esteem for himself and wife. The gifts were a purse of gold to Mr. Merrill from the board of managers of the association, members, and other friends, and also three remembrances to Mrs. Merrill, a beautiful silver lemon dish and fork from the board of managers of the women's auxiliary, a magnificent bunch of chrysanthemums from the Harmony club, and a beautiful bouquet of roses from Mrs. Frank A. Roath.
Lemonade and wafers were served in the reading room by Mrs. John F. Rogers, Mrs. Archibald Mitchell, Jr., Miss Ethel F. Worth and Miss Elizabeth Pullen. The ushers for the evening were J. Holland Larrabee, Frederick H. Cranston, Clifford H. Hobson, George F. Hyde and N. Eugene Smith.
Mr. Merrill leaves for New York on Saturday, but Mrs. Merrill remains to sing at the Second Congregational church in New London on Sunday, and will join Mr. Merrill in New York on Tuesday. He begins his duties with the West End church on December 1.

MUCH INTEREST IN BULLETIN TURKEY CONTEST.
Mrs. C. H. Lathrop of North Franklin Got First Prize—Other Awards to E. Luther of Preston and H. D. Bromley of North Stonington.
Although this has been a bad year for raising turkeys, owing to the dry, warm weather, there was considerable interest in The Bulletin's prize contest for the "fattest and biggest" turkeys raised in New London or Windham counties and Somers Bros' store was filled with people who came to see the birds and watch the weighing on Tuesday noon. Only twelve birds were entered for prizes, eight young and four old ones, which is the smallest number ever brought in for the contest. H. F. Button and Nelson A. Brown of North Stonington were judges, and Joseph P. Connor did the weighing.
Mrs. C. H. Lathrop of North Franklin won the first prize, it being the third year she has taken one, the young bird weighing 16-1-2 pounds.
The second prize went to E. Luther of Preston, the bird weighing 15 pounds, and the third prize, for the largest bird regardless of age, went to H. D. Bromley of North Stonington. This bird weighed 26 pounds.
The regular retail price for native turkeys, 35 cents per pound, was added to The Bulletin's cash prize, giving Mrs. Lathrop $16.75 for the first prize, Mr. Luther $14.50 for the second, and H. D. Bromley $10.60 for the third. When entering the birds for the contest, the owner's name was written on a tag and placed in a sealed envelope so the judges would not know to whom they belonged.
Today the birds will be sent to the Rock Brook Home, Shelter for Animals and the County Home for Children for Thanksgiving dinner.
ARCANUM CLUB WHIST.
Delightful Club Night Enjoyed by About Eighty Members—Refreshments Served at the Close.
It was club night at the Arcanum club on Tuesday evening and despite the rain there were about eighty present to take in the pleasures provided by the entertainment committee of the club, consisting of Frederick W. Cary, G. W. Hamilton, A. E. Story and Louis R. Porteous.
There were eleven tables of whist played and at the close it was announced that on the white scorers George Elliott had won, and he received a handsome pocketbook for his score of 48. On the blue counters Elmer R. Pierson made 42 and was presented a copper ash tray. Refreshments served, consisting of chicken salad, ice cream and cake and coffee.

Dear Had Been Shot.
Spicer Huntley, Seth Cowles and Will Rogers, three young lads of East Windham, were out Monday night after stunks and about 9.30 p. m. found a doe lying behind a stone wall, badly wounded. The animal was unable to do more than drag her hind quarters along, a small caliber bullet having penetrated her body in the region of the kidneys, paralyzing her.
The lads managed to drag the deer to a barn belonging to John T. Beckwith, some little distance away. Gideon Huntley, they went home. Gideon Huntley, of Spicer, at once called up County Game Warden George H. Bradford, who gave permission for the animal to be killed and put to some use.

Foreclosure of Judgment Lien.
Mrs. Anna L. Coburn of Dorchester, Mass., has brought suit against the Industrial Manufacturing company of Mystic for a foreclosure of judgment lien obtained against the company in the court of common pleas of New London county on Sept. 25, 1905.
Judgment was obtained by Edward E. Buckley of Mystic for $198.78 and costs of $2.21. This judgment was purchased by Mrs. Coburn, to whom Mr. Buckley assigned his interest. She filed with the town clerk of Stonington a judgment lien on property and has now brought an action for foreclosure.
Licenses Granted.
At the meeting of the board of county commissioners in this city on Tuesday the following licenses were granted: Henry A. Gaucher, 24 Main street; Andrew McLaughlin, 243 Central avenue; Patrick Shea, 458 North Main street; James O. Mahoney, 7 Falls avenue; Julius A. Wulkey, 35 Franklin street; James McNelly, West Town street; Anton Kowalski, 4 Central avenue; Joseph G. Bedard, 248 Main street; all liquor. John A. Dunn, 59 Main street, drug. Henry A. Gaucher and Samuel Milner, both of Sprague, liquor licenses.
W. H. Hall Selling Horses.
W. H. Hall of South Willington, a well known horseman, was in New London Monday night, shipping nine high bred animals to the annual Old Glory sale at Madison Square Garden, New York. The animals, which came to New London by rail and were shipped on the Central Vermont line, included the famous Asa Wilkes.

Dredging in the River.
Work in dredging the Thames river in the vicinity of Allyn's Point was begun Monday. Several scows, a tug and barge were being utilized on the job, which will last several weeks. The dredging has been a necessity a long time, several vessels having grounded there while endeavoring to make wharfage.
Joseph Hunter Estate.
In the probate court the appraisal of the estate of Joseph Hunter has been filed, showing it to be $4,746.02, consisting of seven pieces of real estate and household goods, worth $271.19 in the bank. G. O. Stead and W. O. Rogers were the appraisers.
Christian Science Service.
This evening at 7.45 o'clock in the Christian Science reading rooms there will be a singing service.

Miss Martha A. Ward left Tuesday for Saugerties, N. Y., to spend Thanksgiving with her aunt, and to remain for a visit of two weeks.
Miss Gertrude S. Hyde and Miss Foss of the faculty of Mt. Holyoke college came on Tuesday to spend the Thanksgiving recess at Miss Hyde's home on Washington street.
Alanson P. Lathrop and his family of New York will arrive today (Wednesday) to be with Mr. Lathrop's mother, Mrs. J. S. Lathrop, of Washington street, for the remainder of the week.
Dr. Kaufman Called Away.
Rev. Dr. M. S. Kaufman, who was to be one of the preachers at the union Thanksgiving service at the Central Baptist church Thursday morning, has been called out of town to attend a funeral, so that he will be unable to follow out the original plan. Rev. P. C. Wright, pastor of the church, will deliver the Thanksgiving sermon.
